Intro.

If you happened to be near town N on the 5th Highway, on a hot summer evening of the year 1956, you would surely see this car. Luxurious, perfect pink Cadillac with a surf desk on its roof and the sounds of rock-n-roll coming out of it. It was Archi Burton – a famous detective and women's favorite – driving on his vacation.

Some minutes later, pink Cadillac disappeared in the immense territory of Nevada desert, making its driver confront unexpected and exciting adventures.

They were, though, very exciting and unexpected to a person like Archi...

And it started like this.

Half an hour later, we have met Archi's car, it suddenly stopped. The road was blocked by an overturned car, which seemed to have an accident. Archi jumped out of his car to help the people. Near it, he saw an injured girl in a very strange dress. She was unconscious. Archi carefully takes the girl to his car and drives her to the nearest hospital, of the closest town.

An hour of mad driving and Archi arrived to Rouseville Town. He found a hospital and let the doctors see the girl, and decided to spend the night in the nearest motel. But on the seat of his car, right on the place where the girl was lying, he saw a strange object that looked like a trinket. He decided to return it to the girl when he meets her. Next morning Archi went to the hospital again to visit the girl. From this moment on, all the show started. The doctors said there was no girl. And when Archi get out of the hospital he met two burglars, which were waiting for him and advised him to come with them. After short dispute Archi found himself in the mansion of local Mafia boss. Big Harry (that was the name of the gangster) looked at Archi's trinket (but he called it the key to the Devil's Eye) and told that Archi should probably know where whole eye is. So he asked Archi to bring The Devil's Eye in three days, otherwise.... Well, he couldn't surely reject such an offer and so he got into a very dangerous adventure.

Characters.

Miss Creolett – chief medical officer in the Roach town hospital

As all the doctors she knows much about human body.
Temptative and reserved. Probably she can play a double game.

Old man – seller in the souvenir shop

Tender, affable and hypocrite. Can't stay indifferent to the hard cash.

Big Harry

A true gangster, very disgusting man. He kills easily and without a doubt.

Harry's assistants

Common gangsters, they beat first and think second. They really hate private detectives.

Ordinary FBI agent

Always on duty. He sees and knows everything.

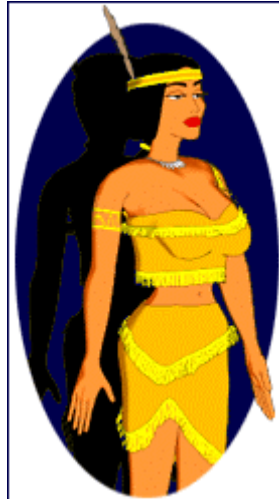

FBI agent Johnson.

Drunken FBI agent. Drinks from despair but stays on his duty.

Shaman.

Artful Indian named Red Adam Apple. Old fox and charlatan.
He adores two things: whiskey and cheating white people.

Indian girl Lual

Tender flower, appeared as a miracle in an ugly family.
The child of the prairies, innocent and shy.

Bobina, fortuneteller

Big black woman. Fortells the fortunes, bewitches, puts an evil eye on people and helps to succeed. Very passionate.

Owner of the camping

Very fine fat man, has some innocent pranks.
Wants to be loved by women.

Lover of Harry, Eleanor, the singer.

Fatal woman, greedy and insatiable in love.
Adores luxurious things and rich men.
Doesn't understand the word «No».

Commercial traveler

Cunning man, successful in business and sex.
Prefers shady deals and wouldn't miss his chance.

Lana, alien

Perfect, lofty, supernatural....
It's the aliens who can save our world.

Farmer and at the same time evil alien.

Impudent villain, hiding under mask of happy farmer.
Has one disgusting hobby – enslaving other planets.

Owner of the bar.

Great and old fan of the alcohol.
Because of the stomach ulcer cannot get drunken, but advises everybody.

Girl – postwoman.

Young and very trustful. Likes to read all letters.

Librarian.

A clever and well-read girl.
Prefers books to men.

Actress Alice Aliver.

Has a lot of fans, but she is interested only in film producers.
Likes to talk about movies and to lie in the sun.

Marcel, girl-biker.

Very brave girl. She doesn't allow much with her.

Boba.

Perfect black man, ex-cook.
Most of all in this world he likes to smoke nice pot.

Archi Burton – private detective.

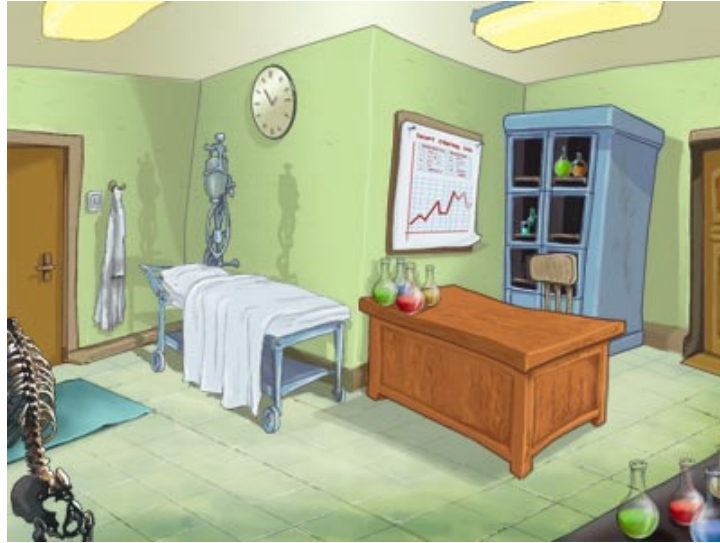

Brave, clever and sometimes unselfish. Most of all he likes money and women and that's why often gets into trouble. But he can easily get out of them.

In other words – a real main hero.

Locations.

Rouseville town.

Common american small town. It has a small shop, a hospital, a casino, a post-office, a library and a bar. In other words – as usual.

Indian reservation named after leader Cast Iron Throat

Some wigwams with Indians inside.

Secret military base N 7343

No information at all.

Camping

What's happening in these attractive houses.....

Farm

It could be a common farm if it were not occupied by an evil alien. The pigs in the pigsty are really marvelous.

Eagle's Rock.

Very pompous place. Only very important events happen here.

History

Tape record occasionally found by tourists at the bottom of Eagle's Rock on the 8th of August 1956.

6th of July 12:00

I'm a private detective Archi Burton and I wouldn't call my life boring. But what is happening here in Roach Town isn't very funny! It seems to me that someone has played a trick on me: I carried a stranger to the hospital, found her trinket in my car, in the morning that girl disappeared and I was brought to the local gangster – Big Harry. That geek has found immediately that trinket and asked me to bring a hellish Devil's Eye and gave me only three days for that! Then his guys worked over me, so I found myself in the hospital again...

And now I understand what an awful situation!

I'm hot and miss the money I left in the hospital. But I also remember my talk to Big Harry and I'm sure that he was not joking.

The only thing that comes to my mind: I have to find that Eye. Damned him, I need to learn what's that.

6th of July 13:45

People here are real rednecks! They know nothing about anything! They just say that this Eye is an ancient Indian relic but they can't tell me even how it looks like. Hell, I have never done it before, but now I think I need to go to the library. Probably I can find an old book there where I can read something connected with this damned Eye.

6th of July 15:53

I'm a lucky guy! First of all, the librarian appeared to be such a tasty morsel! Unfortunately she prefers books to men, but I'll try to change her preferences! I know I can do this! She just gave me an old Indian manuscript; probably she will give me something more.... Let's look what those foolish Indians wrote there....

6th of July 16:07

They wrote a delirium there! They say they have stolen that Eye from a Demon, who wanted to capture the Earth. When the Eye returns to the Demon, dark evil things would rise to kill the people and settle here and if they haven't tampered with the dates the Demon will come soon to take his Eye! What raving! And nothing about finding of this Eye! But I have only first part of the manuscript, but nobody knows where's its second part. Damned, why it's so hot!

6th of July 19:35

I went to a bar to relax and met a girl. She's trying to be cool, rides her motorcycle and is dressed like a biker. It looks so funny! If I wanted her she would immediately become good girl! But I don't have time for this now. Marcel, that's the name of this girl, told me that she wanted to steal one thing from Big Harry and that she had a key to the balcony door of his mansion. Probably I can help her... Well, it's surely very risky, but I think I need to return the key to the Devil's Eye also. It's better to have all trumps in your hands.

6th of July 22:13

I've just returned from Big Harry's mansion. I can say that I became very nervous there! Bald geek was snoring in his armchair right near the window, I've entered. I had to calm him down with a bat! Ha, that was really funny! I have taken what Marcel asked Devil's Eye and me also. The girl is very grateful to me and surely admires me. And if only I want.... Well, no time for it now. She also told me that one military base nearby was also interested in this Eye. I think I shall visit them.

6th of July 23:48

Damn, I even don't know what to begin with! A lot happened to me on that base! When I came there it seemed to me very deserted. But soon I've understood that it wasn't so....

It was rather difficult to get inside, but no for me: I only had to blow up a part of the wall and enter. I entered, looked around, nothing seemed strange to me and suddenly I saw a pistol aimed at me, my mood became worse.

But I became even more disappointed when I understood that it was an FBI agent and he was very drunken and he could easily shoot me. But I told him that I'm also an FBI agent and drank some whiskey with him and we became friends.

But I was going to turn gray when I realized the reason of his drinking here. The level of radiation there was five times higher then the lethal dose, when they learned about that they left the base immediately and left this agent as a guardian! That's why he is drinking! Well, he is doing his duty but why should I die here?! During the time I spent here I should have been irradiated much and I think I'm shining already as a Christmas tree! And I forgot to mention my lost potency! Ok, if I have to die, first I want to look what they are hiding here. But that stubborn agent tried to stop me, but I duped him again and went to the hangar.

Have you ever seen flying plates? Probably only in the movies. But I have seen it for real. It was in the hangar, new and bright – right for the exhibition!

And near it was a capsule with a girl inside – who do you think it was? – the girl from that broken car! Standing silent – frozen, I think! Well, I had to save her life again and started working with a code lock. It's very good that I'm a clever man otherwise I wouldn't open it in half an hour!

The girl, in her strange dress, came out of the capsule, thanked me and told that she's an alien and the flying plate's her spaceship.

No wonder! It was clear as noonday! Otherwise why did the military men had to put her in this damned capsule?! They can easily cope with a common girl using other measures!

I have just stopped talking when she has really shocked me. She told me such things that my hair stood on end!

Listen.

It happened so that our planet became very attractive to some space ugly creatures and that they want to capture it. But to reach the Earth with their fleet they need to set a lighthouse.

Invasion is possible once in two hundred years. Last time they have brought their lighthouse, here it was stolen by crafty Indians and their plan failed. But such a day will come soon again and damned conquerors sent one of their guys again in order to find that lighthouse and set it correctly.

I think you understand that this lighthouse in the Devil's Eye, so-called by foolish Indians.

It sounded like ravings but I somehow believed that.

And when Lana told me that I should find the Eye and return it to her I decided to help her. In any case I should try to do this. I'm sure you would also try to, if you learned about your future as a slave and the future of the Earth. I was ready to search for this Eye when Lana, that was the girl's name, gave me one thing. One very useful thing. Lana told me that the evil messenger now looks like a man and that's why you can't recognize him. And in order to recognize this geek she gave me magic glasses, which will help me to depict that alien.

But she also added that these glasses have one by-effect, well, they simply undress people around. Frankly speaking, I liked that very much and decided to look through them immediately, but Lana reminded me of the future slavery and I hurried up to find the Eye.

Now I need to find the Eye at all costs and I'm looking forward to do this. But, My God, when will this heat fall?!

7th of July 9:24

Damned it, in this nasty town nobody even knows how can I get to the Indians! If I told you how I managed to get this map you would really admire my resourcefulness! I hope to meet those redskins as they have stolen that Devil's Eye and they should know something about his location. For sure these old foxes like to cheat white people, but nobody could cheat Archi Burton!

7th of July 11:02

I think I found some traces of the Eye! Shaman promised me to ask the spirits! Cunning Indians, for sure, want to get as much information as possible out of me, but it doesn't matter, I just need to know where can I find this damned Eye!

Anyhow the Indians are very naive. Somebody has stolen their ritual Gold Beaver's Skin necessary for contact establishment with the spirits, I promised them to return it and Shaman would tell me after that how to find the Eye! Red Adam's Apple hasn't even an idea that this Eye can cost so much that you can buy hundreds of such skins!

Ok, I need to find this Beaver. I feel the Eye is coming to my hands.

7th of July 14:36

How dissolute all these singers are! They can fuck with anybody even with a commercial traveler, but when noble detective asks her for a small favor, she doesn't wish that! I think you can't understand why I began to talk about singers – I will explain it now.

I'm not talking about all the singers, but about Eleanor, a woman who calls herself a singer but she is just a woman of easy virtue, well, very expensive one. She lives in the same camping town as me and she is said to be an official lover of Big Harry. That is the reason that everybody should adore her. But not me! None of the gangsters can frighten Archi Burton! Only for this damned Beaver's skin I had to contact with her. Can you imagine where this Indian talisman was? It was under her bed – like a rug! I was very angry with that and shout like this:

Eleanor returns this skin to the Indians, don't oppress redskins, and don't dare to trample down holy relics!

In reply she sent me so far that I couldn't even say.

Surely I get offended and start thinking how to take the Beaver from her. I was still thinking when I saw a man moving in the direction of her house, it was a commercial traveler. I took the camera and went to the window.

What pictures I've made – I think you can imagine! I've shown her these pictures and told: give me the skin, otherwise I will show these pictures to Harry! She agreed immediately.

Now I have Gold Beaver and I will go to the Indians to listen to the story about the Devil's Eye.

7th of July 16:15

This Shaman gets on my nerves! The skin is not enough, to contact with spirits he also needs firewater! He wants whiskey, old drunkard, an entire box of it! How long I was trading with him – no result, damned Indian! Ok, I will bring him the drink, I'm sure the Eye is not far. But damned sun burns more each day!

7th of July 20:05

What a town – what a wilderness! The whiskey was over right before me! And who was it? – A woman!

I was madly running around the town to find this damned potion and then learned that whiskey was taken by a doctor! The doctor, who was cheating me in the hospital about Lana! Well, she was not so bad and at first I was even making plans about her... But then I learned that she was an FBI agent and my desire disappeared! You think I've mixed something – not at all! The doctor in the hospital was an FBI agent and on behalf of FBI she covered up the disappearance of Lana and on behalf of FBI she bought all the whiskey. It was prepared for the drinking agent on the base. Well, this guy will have to wait a little. I have stolen the whiskey from the doctor and, frankly speaking, I don't feel any remorse about that!

Unfortunately I will have to give it to this greedy shaman. No matter now he will have to tell me everything about the Eye.

7th of July 21:29

Wiggled! This impudent shaman has wiggled out of me! This red rabble told me that spirits don't allow him to tell me where the Eye is! I'm a stranger for them and they don't trust me! Real nonsense! Nonsense to coax something else from me! But you can't even imagine what this shaman wished! I should marry his daughter! I'm a famous private detective and I should become a «son-in-law» of an Indian?! To relate with Red Adam's Apple? I'm an intelligent and well-educated man, and I should marry a redskin girl, Tender Flower, this daughter of an Indian, this swarthy, dark-haired girl with slender body, with big shining eyes, with beautiful sensitive lips!...

Stop. Well, she's not so bad... Frankly speaking she is really pretty... Perfect legs, ideal breasts.

Well, Lual is very tempting. Very tempting and surely innocent and I wouldn't refuse...

By the way, why should I refuse?! Such a beauty and she is coming to my hands, why should I refuse! Not me! And who would know that I've married her? I will enjoy this Indian girl, learn the secret of this Eye and they will never see me more! I will teach you a good lesson, you will remember white detective! How can they be such simpletons: they want to get Archi Burton in their family, ha-ha! You wouldn't succeed in this! Cunning white will cheat foolish Indians! Everything is so fine! I will tell the shaman that I agree!

7th of July 21:50

The wedding ceremony is going to be held this evening. It's rather strange but I'm a little bit nervous. I have never had it with an Indian girl. Shaman drinks from early morning and is very happy – he thinks he has cheated everybody!

Foolish Indian can't even imagine what's waiting for him!

8th of July 8:01

Now I can try to explain what happened to me. This morning was the most terrible in my life. Today I understand that they cheated me like a baby, me, famous and cunning private detective Archi Barton. They twist me round a finger like a sucker: they made me deadly drunken, took my car and I even didn't have the marriage night with my bride! Today morning I swore that one day I will have a big beautiful mansion with a very big lawn. And this lawn will be covered with hundreds of crosses. Crosses on the graves of the Indians.

Shaman has cheated me. He drank me with the devils Indian potion and when I was practically irresponsible he persuaded me to change our cars. If I can think correctly can I give my new luxurious pink Cadillac in exchange for this old dilapidated Ford?! But I gave it. Gave it and fell into hard sleep. The last thing I remember is laughing Red Adam's Apple and Lual leaving me proudly. Damn him, I want to hang up but I'm afraid I can't!...

When I woke up there were no Indians, that's for sure. What to do? Try to follow them on this Ford is impossible. This day is the blackest day of my life. And, by the way, when will this heat fall?!

8th of July 9:12

I've found something in the garbage left by the Indians. Don't think that I'm a great fan of it, but to get calm I was walking in the reservation and found one thing. It was Indian scroll, one of those which they sell to tourists for five dollars each. But it looked like a real one and when I opened it, I understood that it was the second part of the manuscript I read in the library.

You never know where you loose and where you find.

Surely I have lost much more – my favorite pink Cadillac, but what I have found will help me to find the Devil's Eye.

Between all nonsense, written by the Indians in this manuscript, I found what I was looking for: it was said that the Eye was swallowed by a leader named Bison's Paunch. And the person who is looking for the Eye should take the leader to the Eagle Rock and light up his pipe there and then the Eye will appear. If I wasn't very disappointed because of my car I would surely burst out laughing of this childish tales.

Even less penetrating person will understand they the Indians put the Eye inside a statuette, and so the aim of my search became more concrete.

8th of July 9:35

I've just thought about the statuette and remember it! I remember this statuette! One old big booby was standing for a long time in the local souvenir shop. Wooden Indian alike to description of Bison's Paunch, he is probably weary waiting for his buyer. And for sure this will be me!

The thought of how close I'm to the space lighthouse made my heart beat faster. But soon I was again disappointed as I remember my stolen Cadillac.

Hardly started the old shaman Cadillac I drove towards the shop.

8th of July 10:40

This man is really mad! I can't understand why he wasn't killed for his greediness. Shamelessly looking in my eyes he asked for this old rotten six hundred dollars and hasn't offered me any discount! I swear, my hand was moving towards knife and if I weren't a noble man he would be already buried in a cheap coffin!

Damned, I need six hundred dollars to save the Earth! He agreed with everything I told him but haven't change the price and was really laughing at me!

I will obtain this money! And if I don't find six hundred dollars, necessary to save the Earth, it would be worthy of conquest by this evil aliens.

8th of July 15:55

I've found this money. I will not tell you in details how I've got them, I did it. Perfect, green American dollars! Well, it was not so easy, I have to hunt for the pigs and to work as a photographer, but now I have the required sum of money.

Now I'm in a very fine mood. I'm still in a big disappointment about my stolen Cadillac, but I am able to endure my fortune. And by the way, Lana's magic glasses help me very much. When I look through them on the local beauties I become rather enthusiastic (sometimes its very obvious).

Well, I shouldn't look aside, I've bought the statuette and now I need to know how can I get to this mysterious Eagle's Rock, where I hope to find the space lighthouse.

8th of July 16:39

My God, is there any other town with such foolish people?! None of the natives knows where this damned Eagle Rock is, even though they've heard about it! Well, I have to explore the surroundings, may be I will succeed there.

But can anybody tell me, why it's so hot here?

8th of July 17:23

Damned, how ugly he is! I have even jumped when I saw him through my glasses! If such creatures will inhabit the Earth than it will be really the end!

I think you've already understood that I've met the alien. And only now I can speak about him calmly, but when I saw him for the first time I start shivering all over, even I have seen much in my life!

Can you imagine where he was hiding? On the farm! I don't know what happened to the real farmer (I even don't want to think about it) but when I saw his real look I was really sorry to stole his pigs! It's a pity but he is the only one who has the map showing the way to the Eagle's Rock. But he insists that he hasn't one and laughing at me! Such a behavior on a stranger planet!

I became so angry with him that decided to make him more polite! Well, I don't know how to do it, but I have to do something otherwise I wouldn't get to the Eagle Rock and to the Devil's Eye.

Well, I will think about it....

8th of July 18:07

I have never thought that I can learn a lot from books! Frankly speaking, after paying so much money for the statuette I have no wish to enter the souvenir shop again. But I was very pleased when I bought small brochure «How to cope with these evil spirits» just for some cents. I wasn't very sure that it would help me, but the author appeared to be well informed on this topic and gave valuable pieces of advises. There was also written how to cope with the evil alien. It's very strange, but these creatures can't stand Jango-Jango melody. When they hear it, they loose control and start dancing and they continue dancing till this melody is playing. It's hard to believe this, but I have no choice. The only problem was to find the disc with Jango-Jango.

8th of July 19:11

Unfortunately, it's a lack of music lovers here! Of course it would be really strange if Jango-Jango was the most popular melody in Roach town, but I hoped they like something except dead marches! At one moment I even decided to teach local choir to sing this song but there was no choir in this town.

Damned, what should I do? I have no time to go to Chicago to invite jazz band here!

And the sun becomes hotter...

8th of July 20:01

I can't understand why am I always in a bad luck? Well, two minutes ago when I found out that I could order discs by mail I thought that I'm a lucky guy. But when I talked to the post woman I understand that it's not so. What a bad luck! Can you tell me how often it happens that somebody steals all the postage stamps? I think not very often! But it happened here! The day before my arrival! And when I told the postwoman that I want to order a disc she told me that it's impossible because she had no stamps. No one! If you could hear my damnation!

But I would leave this case. I've asked the postwoman some questions and now I've got an idea about the criminal. I swear I'll found this thief! This criminal hasn't expected that he will have to face Archi Burton – genius private detective; otherwise, I'm sure, he would think a lot before committing this crime!

8th of July 21:25

The crime wasn't so absurd as it seemed to me. I read one article and learned that there was a special stamp between others received in Roach Town. She has a funny defect of the picture. Collectors, who learned about it are ready to pay much money for it, so the person who has stolen all the stamps from post-office wasn't such a fool.

But I need them more than anyone on this planet, that's why I will have to confiscate them. Who is saving the Earth, he or I?

8th of July 22:44

I've got these stamps! It was an artful commercial traveler, he hid them carefully but I found them! You can't even imagine where he decided to hide the envelope! I'm fond of fish but my love for music is even higher and I was ready to get even inside the aquarium for its sake!

I think you know what was my next step? I took the defective stamp! And every time I look at it I imagine my new Cadillac and I feel better.

Ok, I need to go to the post-office and order the disc.

8th of July 23:18

I will return home to take my Magnum in order to kill this rabble! Can you imagine what have I found in the post-office instead of the postwoman? A letter! This damned trader wrote there that he had kidnapped the girl and I have to bring an envelope with the stamps to one table in the bar! What an impudence! He wants to blackmail me, the great Archi Burton, and he thinks I can agree with his conditions! I can't receive the disc without postwoman and if I don't save the Earth it will be invaded by the worst guys than this trader. No matter, I will cope with this cur later, but now I have to return the stamps (not all, for sure, ha!)

9th of July 7:34

I'm coming to the idea that women are not very grateful! I have saved the postwoman and she is surely not going to thank me! And I was looking forward... And these glasses! Believe me, when you always in these glasses you need to relax sometimes! And this damned girl doesn't understand me at all! Ok, first I have to save the world and then I will take everything I want!

9th of July 7:48

What an idiot I am! I couldn't even imagine that I'm such an idiot! What I was thinking about when I returned these stamps! I have to take two stamps instead of one – he wouldn't mention it, anyway! How can I get a disc now if I don't have a stamp? And doesn't even try to tell me that I have one! It's my Cadillac! It's my Cadillac and not a stamp! And I wouldn't give it back! But I wouldn't give my Cadillac to the slavery, that's for sure!

But probably I can run away on my Cadillac from them and I will be the last idiot to change such car on a disc!

My God, what should I do?

9th of July 8:09

Finally I've succeeded. I'm ready to kiss this postwoman even she hasn't give me more!

Can you imagine that she had this disc! Disc with Jango-Jango, which she also likes! Surely she made such a present to me and now I have a small present for our nice alien!

My God, thank you! Thank you that you helped me to avoid this difficult choice, that you allowed me to leave this stamp-Cadillac with me and to save the world! Thank you!

Now I have to go. I feel it's time to make a party for our farmer and look how he will dance!

It seems to me that everything is not so bad as it was before and even the weather became better.

9th of July 10:15

You can't imagine what's a pleasure! I burst into laughter when I saw how this geek was dancing! Everything went fine as I planned it. At first this creature was sitting and smiling at me and telling me what he likes on Earth! Then he was talking about his pigs and in order to make me angry he told me again that he didn't know the road to the Eagle Rock! And when he felt superiority over me and relaxed, I understand that it's time to turn on the music. Talking like a simpleton I said that I like dancing music much and that I have one disc which he will surely like.

Vile alien, laughing loudly, told me that he was really interested in the music of primitive nations and he put the disc inside with his own hands. My time has come!

If you could see how he was jumping. Drunken monkey looks more attractive and less funny than he. I can't stop laughing at him!

When I could laugh no more I took the map to the Eagle Rock and left the farmer. For sure I have told some sweet words to him!

Now I have everything required: the statuette, the key and the road to the Eagle Rock.

I feel myself the savior of the world and the stamp warms up my soul. It will give me a new Cadillac and fine vacations in the future!

9th of July 11:05

I have to drive this mountainous road in a broken Ford and I will reach my goal. I will get the Devil's Eye, return it to Lana and will be absolutely free!

My mood is perfect and even this heat can't spoil it!

9th of July 11:36

The view from here is perfect! I adore such places! On this rock you feel immediately that something special should happen here!

I have already set the statuette and made all I should. I just have to insert the key and the Eye will appear! Damn, I'm a little bit nervous!

Well, I shouldn't delay!

Perfect Eye! Looks like a real one! I have just inserted the key inside the statuette and it broke immediately and the Eye appeared! Such a big and vivid eye!

You know, we became friends with him! He gave me a wink and I winked at him also and in reply he winked at me again! Perfect Eye!

Damn, what's happening there! They are here! All! Gangsters, Indians,
FBI agents and what's the most – farmer!
Our planet is in danger again!
And what a big gun in the hands of the alien!

The world is saved! Lana came for the Eye! Her ship was hanging over the Eagle Rock and shining blue she came down to me! All the galaxy will know my name and they will honor me, Archi Burton, for saving the Earth! So Lana said and then she took the Eye and flew away into the open Space!

I feel myself a real hero! I've saved the Earth and it's the most happy moment of my life!

Oh, my God, I have forgotten about these geeks! They are still here: the gangsters and the Indians, FBI agents and alien! And they seem to be very angry! I don't understand why?

9th of July 11:59

I will explain everything, I'm against any violence! Let's talk! I will explain everything! I'm against any violence!

9th of July 12:00

They are coming to get me! My God, they are here!

9th of July 12:01

Don't touch my head. A-aaaaaa (then the record becomes illegible).

Release.

Dangerous Experiment – release of the disc in May 2001.
